

Docket 4521: Just another example of government involvement when there is no justification, no need and no reason. Driving hundred, if not thousands, of safe Part 91 Tour Operators out of business is typical of the anti-business environment the government creates.

Worse yet, people who contribute their time and money to raising funds for charities through aviation are now subject to more regulations.

I wish we had the government and the taxes from the 1950's.
